Bert Bowers is still suffering from the effects of the contact of two swiftly pitched balls with his shoulder.

The Elks may introduce a new player temporarily in tomorrow's game, Saturday's games will be between: First, Maile vs. Elks; second, P. A. C. vs. Kams. First game will be called at 1:45 o'clock, weather permitting.

With the completion of tomorrow's games over one-fourth of the entire schedule of games will be completed, and so far to very fair attendance.

There are many people who have hunch that the Mailes will make a very creditable showing with the Elks in tomorrow's game and even the Elks' people are praying for luck.

No one, favoring the success of the Kams, has as yet been found that ap-proved the judgment of the manager n the substitution of Reuter for Rich ards in last Saturday's game. Richards was doing excellent work and his retention in the box might have been

If the weather is rainy tomorrow, th ress men will have an uncomfortable exposed place, where they are now "cabinned, cribbed, confined." The trustees should make a more comfortble location for the boys who work for the interests of the league.

There was but a "bunt" meeting o Frank Thompson called the representatives to order and the drawing for practice days was had, after which the meeting dissolved. The result of the drawing for practice days was: Monday, Elks; Tuesday, Mailes; Wednes day, Punahous; Thursday, Kams; Friday, H. A. C.

It would not be a bad move to try Russell and Moore in changed positions. Tomorrow's game may show a reason why.

keeps the pitcher thinking.

Although not generally acceptable to the crowd, the umpire's decision in the fifth of the Punahou-Elk game, putting Russell out at the plate was de- ing, was weighed yesterday evening cidedly correct according to the rule, but the rule is unjust to the player.

In the contested decision of the H. A. C. in re the putting out of En Sue, the umpire is wrong.

Tomorrow's games should prove increating as the Mailes have improved in batting and Zamloch is not in good condition. The collegians will have their friends to uege them on, Doc. Monsarrat included.
